

A grateful thank you to retiring Board member Stephen Kakfwi

Toronto, October 1, 2013 - Long-time Director Stephen Kakfwi retired from the Board of the Inspirit Foundation in June 2013. Kakfwi first served on the Board of S-VOX, the registered charity that operated Vision TV until its sale in 2010, when the Board decided to use the funds from the sale to create the Inspirit Foundation.

Kakfwi is the former Northwest Territories Premier and Dene Nation President. He has been at the forefront of remarkable political, democratic, environmental, economic, cultural and geo-political transformation of Canada's north.

“During Kakfwi’s eight years on the Board, his strategic advice was essential to the governance of Vision TV and the molding of the Inspirit Foundation,” said Dale Godsoe, Chair of the Board. “We are extremely grateful for the time and expertise he dedicated to our work. His vision and passion will continue to inspire our Board and staff to help build a more inclusive and pluralist Canada.”
